CHARDONNAY KREUZWEG FAMILY RESERVE

"Family Reserve" is the new Top of the Castelfeder quality pyramid and highlights the historic Cru site Kreuzweg in the best vintages. Castelfeder's new top wine, a Chardonnay Riserva, originates its name from the Cru in the heart of the village of Margreid, which is historically the best growing area for this variety in entire South Tyrol.

In a limited edition of only 1,400 bottles, this wine reflects the characteristics of this this special terroir.

Undoubtedly a unique wine in which you can taste the history & passion that characterises the work of those who work in the vineyard and cellar.

-  Südtirol – Alto Adige Riserva DOC
-  Selected Cru location in the Bassa Atesina region (village Margreid)
-  Guyot
-  Limestone gravel soils
-  Hand harvest, alcoholic fermentation in barrique barrels, 18 months of ageing in barrique barrel, 12 months in steel tank, 6 months in bottle
-  Fish tartar refined with passion fruit, oil, pepper, or with smoked salmon
-  Bright straw yellow, mineral notes of flint, gooseberry, hazelnut, lemongrass and apple. These aromas and the great elegance on the palate form a convincing harmony of flavours
